Welcome to Speak NOW

Communicate with Confidence

Communicating with confidence means expressing yourself accurately, fluently, and appropriately. English in Action lessons throughout the Student Book present video clips which show students how to use target language in real-life settings. The video is available through Oxford Learn Online Practice, DVD, and on the iTools Classroom Presentation Software CD-ROM.

Online Practice powered by oxfordlearn

Speak Now Online Practice features over 100 engaging self-study activities to help you improve your speaking, pronunciation, and listening skills.

Use the access card on the inside back cover to log in at www.oxfordlearn.com/login.

Maximize Speaking

Every activity in every lesson includes a speaking task to ensure students maximize their opportunity to develop confident conversation skills. In each two-page lesson, students learn key Vocabulary, practice these new words and develop structured speaking skills through the Conversation activity, study new functional language in the Language Booster section, and then develop either Pronunciation or Listening skills in preparation for a communicative Speak with Confidence activity.

B: That's right. I do. I think you like to go hiking.

2 | Conversation

CD1 9 A Listen. What is Luke doing? What does Luke often do on his phone?

Ellen: What are you doing?

Luke: I'm just sending an e-mail.

Ellen: Do you always use your phone to send e-mails?

All of my friends text these days.

Luke: Some of my friends text, some don't. That e-mail was to my dad.

Ellen: So, what else do you use your phone for?

Luke: I often use it to play games. A lot of my friends watch movies, but I find the screen too small.

Ellen: Do you use it for social networking?

Luke: Sure, all the time. Say, I don't think we're friends online...

B PAIR WORK Practice the conversation.

CD1 10 C Listen. Write the two extra sentences you hear in the conversation. Practice the new conversation.

3 | Language Booster

A Notice the different ways we talk about quantities.

Nicole: Really? Wow. Did you travel alone?

Brian: No, I went with friends. It was fun.
Listen, I'd better get going.

Conversation, Part C

Nicole: Hi. How's it going? I'm Nicole.

Brian: Pretty good. My name's Brian.

Nicole: And where are you from?

Brian: I'm from Canada. And you?

Nicole: Brazil. Have you been there?

Brian: I went to Brazil last year!

Nicole: Really? Wow. Did you travel alone?

Brian: No, I went with friends. It was fun.
Listen, I'd better get going. I don't want to be late.

LESSON 2

Conversation, Part A

Nathan: Excuse me. I'm looking for my wife.

Clerk: What does she look like?

Nathan: Well, she's tall and thin.

Clerk: Does she have red hair?

Nathan: No. My wife has dark brown hair.

Clerk: What's she wearing?

Nathan: A blue skirt and a white blouse.

Clerk: Is that her by the changing room?

Nathan: Yes. I guess she wants that coat.

Listening, Part A and B

A: Great party, isn't it?

B: Yeah, but I don't know many people here.

A: You don't? Do you know Paula?

B: No.

A: Oh, well that's her over there. Do you see her? She has blond hair. And she's in her early thirties. She's wearing a black dress.

B: She looks nice.

A: She's talking to Reggie, her cousin.

B: Yeah. And where's Wally? I've heard of him, but I don't know him.

A: This party is for him. He's over there.

B: What does he look like?

A: He's short and a little heavy. He's wearing a green sweater.

B: How old is he?

A: He's twenty-two.

B: And who's that man by the food table?

A: The middle-aged one? That's Adam. He's Paula's older brother.

B: He's really thin. Oh, look! Valerie is here.

A: Who?

B: My friend Valerie. See her? She's really pretty.
She has black hair and she's wearing a blue dress.

A: The one by the door?

B: Yeah. Do you want me to introduce you?

A: Sure!

LESSON 3

Conversation, Part A

Yasuko: Mary, your twin girls look so much alike.
How do you tell them apart?

Mary: Actually, they have very different personalities.

Yasuko: Oh? In what way?

Mary: Matilda is very outgoing and talkative.

Yasuko: And what about her sister?

Mary: Alice is more serious. And she can be very impatient sometimes.

Yasuko: I see they both like to draw.

Mary: Yes, they're both very creative. They love to make things.

Listening, Part A and B

1. I have a new friend, Nora. We're the same in some ways, but different in other ways.
Nora is very outgoing. She likes to be around people. I'm not really outgoing. I'm shy. But we're still good friends. She's also confident. In math class, she always shouts out the answers.
She is sometimes right but sometimes wrong.
She doesn't care. She just tries. I like that about her.

2. The new guy in our class, Simon, is interesting to me. He's really good at art. He's creative and loves anime. He wants to be an anime artist someday. But he's also very good at math. He's probably the best student in our class, actually. He gets good grades easily, but he hardly studies. He's becoming a good friend.
3. I work in a coffee shop on weekends and there's a new girl there. Her name's Caley. She's not hardworking at all and gets very impatient with customers. You know, sometimes customers need time to choose their order. Caley just looks the other way and taps her fingers like this. She also forgets the customers' orders and makes lots of mistakes. I don't think she'll have this job for very long.

LESSON 4

Conversation, Part A

- Ellen: What are you doing?
 Luke: I'm just sending an e-mail.
 Ellen: Do you always use your phone to send e-mails? All of my friends text these days.
 Luke: Some of my friends text, some don't. That e-mail was to my dad.
 Ellen: So, what else do you use your phone for?
 Luke: I often use it to play games. A lot of my friends watch movies, but I find the screen too small.
 Ellen: Do you use it for social networking?
 Luke: Sure, all the time. Say, I don't think we're friends online....

Conversation, Part C

- Ellen: What are you doing? Are you busy?
 Luke: I'm just sending an e-mail.
 Ellen: Do you always use your phone to send e-mails? All of my friends text these days.
 Luke: Some of my friends text, some don't. That e-mail was to my dad. He sends me e-mails every day.
 Ellen: So, what else do you use your phone for?
 Luke: I often use it to play games. A lot of my friends watch movies, but I find the screen too small.
 Ellen: Do you use it for social networking?

Luke: Sure, all the time. Say, I don't think we're friends online...

LESSONS 1-4 ENGLISH IN ACTION

- Maria: Eric, how can you study and text at the same time?
 Eric: Most of my classmates text, study, and tweet at the same time.
 Maria: Hi Tom! How's it going?
 Tom: Good. How are you?
 Maria: OK. Eric and I are studying. Well, actually I'm studying.
 Eric: Hey! So am I.
 Tom: Hi, Jill.
 Jill: Oh. Hey Tom!
 Tom: What are you doing?
 Jill: Oh, I'm waiting for my cousin. She's on her way from the airport.
 Tom: Your cousin?
 Jill: Yeah, she's going to stay with Maria and me for a couple of months. Her name's Casey.
 Tom: Really? Where's she from?
 Eric: Los Angeles.
 Tom: What's she like?
 Jill: Oh, well, she's really fun. And... different. She's really different from me!
 Tom: Different...in what way?
 Eric: Everyone. Casey's in a taxi.
 Tom: How do YOU know Casey?
 Eric: We're Facebook friends. She just updated her status—I'm in a taxi, and heading to Jill's place! She'll be here in any minute.
 Maria: How are you studying?
 Eric: Trust me. I am.
 Tom: OK. So, what's she like?
 Jill: Oh yeah, uh, well. She's really into clothes. She likes to wear lots of accessories—things she makes herself. Hats, scarves, and stuff.
 Tom: So how old is she?
 Jill: She's...let me remember...she's—
 Eric: 21.
 Jill: Right. 21. Oh! I just got a text. Casey is—Eric: Here!
 Maria: Wow.

Eric: I know!

Jill: I'm going to get her.

Maria: OK...done! I'm finished with my homework.

Eric: I haven't even started.

Maria: See. I told you. Not many of us can do two things at the same time.

Jill: Everyone. This is Casey!

Casey: Hi!

Tom/Eric/Maria: Hi Casey!!

Casey: Nice to meet you. It's cold here!

Tom: Let's go get something warm to drink.

Maria: Coffee sounds good!

Jill: Eric?

Eric: I can't. I have to do homework. But will you guys text me what you're talking about?

Jill/Maria/Tom: No.

LESSON 5

Conversation, Part A

Kent: Hi, Lori. I'm getting hungry.

Lori: Hey, Kent! Me too. Have you ever tried Mexican food? I know a great place.

Kent: No, I haven't. But I think I want Asian food.

Lori: OK. How about Thai?

Kent: I've never had Thai food.

Lori: It's my favorite! The noodle dishes are amazing!

Kent: Do you have a place in mind?

Lori: There's a place called Thairiffic.

Kent: OK. I'll meet you there!

Listening, Part A and B

1. I've had this several times. But it's not easy to get fresh. I've often had it as juice. The first time I tried it, I didn't know what to expect. It was very sour. I've only tried sweet fruit, but I really liked it. I would recommend this to anyone.
2. I love most types of seafood but this one? I'm not so sure. Well, I know it's popular, but I'm not sure why. I just remember it was expensive. And it looked dangerous. When I tasted it, I just remember thinking, "It's so salty." I like salty food but not this. Oh, and it's raw. Have you ever had it?

3. I tried this once in the United States. It's popular in the south. It's a vegetable that not a lot of people know, or like. It's in dishes like gumbo, and I hear that it is delicious. I've never tried gumbo. I just had this vegetable fried. It was really bland. I didn't like the texture at all.
4. This is one of my favorite foods. I tried it the first time when I was eight-years-old. I remember the taste was really strong. But I guess I like strong flavors because I eat this all the time. I like it in salads, on crackers, and with fruit.

LESSON 6

Conversation, Part A

Joel: What are you making?

Tara: Bruschetta. Have you ever tried it?

Joel: No. How do you make it?

Tara: First, grill the bread. Make sure you grill both sides. Then rub the bread with garlic.

Joel: OK. It smells good.

Tara: Next, pour olive oil on the bread. Don't pour too much, just a little. After that, put on some chopped tomatoes. Finally, add salt, pepper, and a basil leaf. Try one!

Conversation, Part C

Joel: What are you making?

Tara: Bruschetta. Have you ever tried it?

Joel: No. How do you make it?

Tara: First, grill the bread. Make sure you grill both sides. Then rub the bread with garlic. Do this right away.

Joel: OK. It smells good. What do I do next?

Tara: Next, pour olive oil on the bread. Don't pour too much, just a little. After that, put on some chopped tomatoes. Finally, add salt, pepper, and a basil leaf. Try one! You'll love it!

LESSON 7Conversation, Part A

- Kit: So, what are you in the mood for?
 Sarah: Have you tried that new restaurant near the subway station?
 Kit: You mean The Pink Peppercorn?
 Sarah: Yeah. That's the one.
 Kit: No, I haven't yet. What's it like?
 Sarah: It's pretty good. They serve a lot of curries and noodle dishes. And their prices are reasonable. Most of the dishes cost about $10.
 Kit: That's pretty good. What's the service like?
 Sarah: The service is really slow, but otherwise it's a nice place.
 Kit: I think I'll try it!

Listening, Part A and B

- A: They've done a nice job with the decoration.
 B: I like the colors.
 A: So do I. And the music is good. It's not too loud.
 B: I hate restaurants with loud, noisy music. You can't hear yourself think!
 A: I know. This place feels really relaxed.
- A: But it's too bad it's so far.
 B: Yeah. It's not near anything.
 A: I heard it's hard to get space downtown.
 B: I don't think many customers will come here.
 A: I agree. It takes too long to get here.
- A: The menu looks really good.
 B: Where do we start? Some of the chicken dishes look nice.
 A: They're famous for their seafood.
 B: Oh, yeah? I see they have octopus.
 A: I've never tried that. Oh, I can't decide!
- A: But I think they need to hire more people.
 B: I agree. The servers are really busy. They need one or two more.
 A: And our server made a mistake with our meal. That's not good.

- B: She didn't even know the menu very well.
 A: Yeah—she couldn't answer many questions.

- A: Wow! Our bill is only $29.
 B: That's very reasonable.
 A: A new restaurant can't charge too much.
 B: I know. Or they won't get much business.
 A: I hope they're making money at least.

LESSON 8Conversation, Part A

- Server: Welcome to Zippy's. Are you ready to order?
 Customer: Yes, I'd like the fried chicken, please.
 Server: Would you like mashed potatoes, French fries, or steamed rice with that?
 Customer: Hm...I'll take steamed rice.
 Server: Anything to drink?
 Customer: I'll have the peach iced tea.
 Server: Anything else? Would you like to start with an appetizer?
 Customer: No, I'm saving room for dessert.

Conversation, Part C

- Server: Welcome to Zippy's. Are you ready to order?
 Customer: Yes, I'd like the fried chicken, please. I'm pretty hungry.
 Server: Would you like mashed potatoes, French fries, or steamed rice with that?
 Customer: Hm...I'll take steamed rice.
 Server: Anything to drink?
 Customer: I'll have the peach iced tea.
 Server: Anything else? Would you like to start with an appetizer?
 Customer: No, I'm saving room for dessert. I'll take a chocolate cake!

LESSONS 5-8 ENGLISH IN ACTION

- Tom: What time are Casey, Jill, and Maria coming over for dinner?
 Eric: 7. We have plenty of time. What should we make?
 Tom: Pasta!

Eric: Tom, I love your pasta but—
 Tom: I love it too. I could have it every single day.
 Eric: Exactly my point. We do have it every day. We should try something different. Let me see...have you tried Indian food?
 Tom: No, I haven't.
 Eric: What about Japanese food?
 Tom: Nope.
 Eric: What have you tried?
 Tom: Pasta.
 Eric: OK. Nevermind...Casey likes fish. So do Jill and Maria. Let's make a simple fish dish.
 Tom: OK.
 Eric: Fry the vegetables in a pan.
 Eric: Don't forget to add salt...pepper...and olive oil.
 Eric: Don't pour too much olive oil, just a little.
 Eric: I have to get the phone.
 Tom: Go ahead. Don't worry.
 Eric: Thanks, Tom.
 Tom: Oh, no! The fish!
 Eric: What's wrong?
 Tom: I'm sorry.
 Eric: We still have time. It's not a big deal. We can just order in.
 Tom: I know a great place we can order from! The food is pretty good, it's fairly cheap, and attracts a lot of customers.
 Eric: OK. Sounds good.
 Server: Hello?
 Tom: Hello, can I place a delivery order?
 Server: Sure! What would you like?
 Tom: I would like your...hm...
 Server: Tom?
 Tom: Yes...Roberto?
 Server: Yes! How are you?
 Tom: Great!
 Server: What can I get you? Is it the usual?
 Tom: Yes, but for five people.
 Server: Sure thing. Five of our special house pastas.
 Tom: Sounds delicious! And can you put extra tomato sauce and cheese in one of them?
 Server: Anything for you, Tom!
 Tom: Thank you.

Server: Have a good night!
 Tom: What?
 Eric: Pasta?
 Tom: You said something different. And it's not my pasta, so it's different...right?

LESSON 9

Conversation, Part A

Leila: Hi, Tracey. I'm not feeling too well.
 Tracey: Oh? What's the matter, Leila?
 Leila: I have a sore throat.
 Tracey: That's too bad. I hope it's not the flu. Have you seen a doctor?
 Leila: No. I'm fine, really. I think I just have a cold.
 Tracey: You have a fever. Why don't you go home and rest?
 Leila: Good idea. Can you take notes for me in class?
 Tracey: Sure. I hope you feel better soon.
 Leila: Thanks.

Listening, Part A and B

- A: So, how was your weekend?
 B: It was so-so. Look what I did.
 A: That looks really painful. What happened?
 B: I was playing tennis and I fell.
 A: Oh, no! Does it hurt?
 B: Oh, yeah. Luckily, I didn't break it. I went to a doctor, she took an X-ray and just put a bandage on it. But it's really difficult to hold anything. I can't even write or type with it.
 A: I would think it's a good idea not to use it at all.
 B: I guess.
- A: Did that medicine I gave you do you any good?
 B: Well, I feel a bit better today.
 A: That's good.
 B: But it hasn't completely gone away. I'm sure it was the fish I had at the restaurant. I don't think it was very fresh.
 A: Yeah, it was probably that. The chicken I had was fine.
 B: I don't think I want to go back there.

A: Try not to eat anything too oily or spicy for a few days. Just rice and soup would be good. And drink lots of water.

3. A: How do I look?

B: Not too good. They're both really red, especially the left one.

A: Still?

B: I'm afraid so. Are they sore?

A: Not at all. And I can still see perfectly fine.

B: Why don't you get some medicine for it? You don't want it to get any worse.

A: I suppose.

B: Better yet, I suggest seeing a doctor. You can't be too careful.

A: Do you think it was the contacts?

B: Maybe. It's a good idea to wear your glasses for a while.

4. A: I need another aspirin. It's not going away. Actually, I think it's getting worse.

B: That's not good. Why don't you put a cold cloth on your forehead?

A: Good idea.

B: And I'll turn off this light. The bright lights don't help.

A: Thanks.

B: Why don't you go and lie down in bed?

A: OK.

B: And I'll check on you in a little while.

LESSON 10

Conversation, Part A

Alex: I've been so tired lately. I never seem to have enough energy. Should I join a gym?

Luisa: Gyms can be expensive. There are simple ways to exercise at home.

Alex: Like what?

Luisa: If I were you, I'd climb the stairs or dance to music. You should do something active that you enjoy. Are you getting enough sleep?

Alex: Sure. I sleep about ten hours a day.

Luisa: That's too much. Getting too much sleep can make you feel tired. You should try to sleep eight hours a day.

Conversation, Part C

Alex: I've been so tired lately. I never seem to have enough energy. Should I join a gym?

Luisa: Gyms can be expensive. There are simple ways to exercise at home.

Alex: Like what? What would you do?

Luisa: If I were you, I'd climb the stairs or dance to music. You should do something active that you enjoy. Are you getting enough sleep?

Alex: Sure. I sleep about ten hours a day. But I'm still tired.

Luisa: That's too much. Getting too much sleep can make you feel tired. You should try to sleep eight hours a day.

LESSON 11

Conversation, Part A

Rachel: I really need to get more exercise.

Peter: Me too. We could take classes at the sports center. There's racquetball, boxing, swimming—

Rachel: Oh, I wouldn't really like those. They seem like a lot of hard work.

Peter: Well, how about a class in ballroom dancing? I'd love to try that!

Rachel: Really? Why is that?

Peter: Because I'd learn something new. And I can do it with someone else.

Rachel: I think it would be boring. I'd like to try something more relaxing, like tai chi.

Listening, Part A and B

1. I've always wanted to try this. This would be perfect for me because I love the water and like to be on my own a lot. I like it because you don't need too much equipment, just a boat and a paddle. I wouldn't want to go too far, at least until I build my upper body strength. And I'd like to try it on a lake, not in the ocean. It looks like a very peaceful activity, if you know what I mean.

2. I think this is a pretty common game, or I guess it's a sport, actually. My older brother plays a lot, but I've never tried it. I'm a very competitive person, and this looks like non-stop action. To be honest, I'd like to beat my brother! It also just looks fun, so I hope to try it soon. My friend has a table at his house, so maybe he'll let me play sometime.

3. I've wanted to try this for a long time. It looks so relaxing, but I'm sure it's hard work, too. There's a sports center in town with an indoor swimming pool that offers classes three times a week. I don't think I'd want to go that often, but maybe once or twice a week. None of my friends do this, so it might be a good way to meet some new people. I'm not a very good swimmer, but I don't think that matters.
4. I would so love to do this. It goes back thousands of years, so there is an interesting tradition around it. Of course, in the past it was hunting, but that doesn't interest me. I'd do it just with regular targets. I remember I saw it on TV at the Olympics Games a couple of years ago and found it fascinating. It doesn't look easy at all. I'd like to try it because I want to get into something that requires discipline.

LESSON 12

Conversation, Part A

Celine: So, I just got this great new sports channel. All sports, all the time.

Doug: Cool. So, what should we watch?

Celine: Let's see...how about tennis?

Doug: Um, is it OK if we watch something different? Tennis is kind of boring to watch.

Celine: Sure. Golf is more interesting than tennis, don't you think?

Doug: Not really. I think golf is less interesting than tennis. I do like soccer. It's my favorite.

Celine: Mine too, but there are no soccer games today. Say, do you want to go for a walk?

Conversation, Part C

Celine: So, I just got this great new sports channel. All sports, all the time.

Doug: Cool. So, what should we watch?

Celine: Let's see...how about tennis? I love tennis.

Doug: Um, is it OK if we watch something different? Tennis is kind of boring to watch.

Celine: Sure. Golf is more interesting than tennis, don't you think?

Doug: Not really. I think golf is less interesting than tennis. I do like soccer. It's my favorite.

Celine: Mine too, but there are no soccer games today. Say, do you want to go for a walk? I can use the exercise.

LESSONS 9-12 ENGLISH IN ACTION

Eric: Help yourselves. Enjoy.

Casey/Jill: Thank you. Thanks, Eric!

Eric: Thank you!

Jill: So, how did your doctor's appointment go last week?

Eric: Oh, not so well, actually.

Casey: That's too bad. Nothing serious, I hope.

Eric: Oh, no, nothing like that. I can't sleep at night, and sometimes my stomach hurts.

Casey: Oh, no!

Eric: It's OK. My doctor said I should change my diet.

Jill: Change your diet?

Eric: Yeah, she said I should eat healthy. I think I eat pretty healthy.

Jill: Um...well, it's a not good idea to eat too much sugar.

Eric: No, of course not. The doctor said I should stop drinking coffee. But I love coffee. It's been real hard. He also said I should eat more vegetables.

Casey: I can't see you as a vegetarian somehow.

Eric: No, I don't have to give up meat, but I should eat more vegetables.

Jill: I think you should exercise more. I exercise three times a week and I feel healthy.

Eric: Exercise? I bowl four times a week.

Casey: Really? That's exercise.

Eric: Yeah! I guess it is.

Casey: Wow, you must be really good.

Eric: I beat all the other players! And I also box.

Jill: I didn't know that!

Eric: I box almost every day! I'm really good at it too. Boxing is definitely more fun than bowling.

Casey: Wow, you're really athletic!

Eric: Yep. And I also play tennis.

Casey/Jill: Tennis?

Eric: Yep. Tennis was more difficult to learn than boxing. But I win almost every game now. Do you guys want to see me play?

Jill: Like, right now?

Eric: Sure!

LESSON 13

Conversation, Part A

Josh: So, how's school going?

Lily: Well, I'm getting mostly A's and B's. But I'm not doing so well in Portuguese. I'm not very good at languages, I guess.

Josh: No one is good at every subject.

Lily: I suppose. So, are your classes going OK?

Josh: My accounting class is hard. I don't think I'm very good with numbers. But my literature teacher says I'm a good writer.

Lily: You'd make a great journalist.

Josh: As long as I don't write about numbers.

Conversation, Part C

Josh: So, how's school going? How are your grades?

Lily: Well, I'm getting mostly A's and B's. But I'm not doing so well in Portuguese. I'm not very good at languages, I guess.

Josh: No one is good at every subject. I wouldn't worry.

Lily: I suppose. So are your classes going OK?

Josh: My accounting class is hard. I don't think I'm very good with numbers. But my literature teacher says I'm a good writer.

Lily: You'd make a great journalist.

Josh: As long as I don't write about numbers.

LESSON 14

Conversation, Part A

Katy: I want to start my own business after I graduate.

Raul: Really?

Katy: I just need to have some money to get started. And I need to have a fresh idea.

Raul: Do you have any ideas?

Katy: I'd like to sell healthy lunches to people in offices, things like sandwiches and salads.

Raul: Do you think it would be difficult to get started?

Katy: Well, I would need a good kitchen. But I wouldn't have to have a car. I could use a bicycle.

Raul: Good idea.

Katy: Say, I'm looking for a business partner. Are you interested?

Listening, Part A and B

1. First, I want to thank your teacher, Mrs. Perez, for letting me talk to you today about being a model. Now, there are different types of models. For example, there are fashion models and print models. For any type of modeling, you need to have clear skin and healthy hair. You have to look healthy. But you don't have to be thin to be a successful model. If we only think of fashion modeling, yes, it's important. But there are many models that we consider plus size and these models are more typical of the average person. Finally, you don't have to have a college degree, but I encourage you all to get a degree. A model's career can be short, and you will want to have another set of skills to fall back on.
2. Hi, everyone. I am a concierge. I work at a hotel, and I help guests. I make travel arrangements, give advice on local restaurants, deliver messages—that kind of thing. So, if you're interested in a career as a concierge, what skills do you need to have? Well, you need to be friendly. No one wants to talk to an unfriendly concierge! Also, you have to know the area around the hotel or the city. A concierge often gives directions. You don't usually have to work late at night. That's another thing I like about the job—the hours. We mostly work during the day. That's when our guests need us most. Finally, you will notice I am wearing a uniform. You have to wear a uniform of course, so if you don't want to wear a uniform at your job, this isn't the job for you.

3. Hello. From what I am wearing, can anyone guess what my job is? No? Well, I'm an architect. There are a lot of things that are necessary if you want to be an architect. We design buildings, so many people think we don't need to know about interior design. Not true—we do. And another thing we need to be good at is math. So, if you want to be an architect, keep taking those algebra and geometry classes. You also have to be able to work on a team. We work with all kinds of people. Some think architects spend all their time alone, and again this is not true. That's what I like about my job—working with others. Now, an architect needs a lot of education and yes, you need a license. It's necessary since architects have to design safe buildings for people to live and work in.

Conversation, Part A

Ron: Hi, Keiko. Are you enjoying your new job?

Keiko: Yeah. So far so good. I get to meet lots of interesting people.

Ron: You're a concierge, right?

Keiko: Yes. I work for the new hotel downtown.

Ron: Do you get to use your language skills?

Keiko: I do. I use both my French and English.

Ron: And how's the salary?

Keiko: Well, I'm still in training, but I'll get a raise when I'm done.

Listening, Part A and B

1. I thought I wouldn't enjoy the job when I first started. I don't really like working at night. But I didn't have a choice since I'm one of the new guys. At first, I was worried about sitting down all day. And I don't know the city very well. Luckily, with GPS it's very easy to take people where they want to go. Most of my trips are short distances or to the airport. Some of the people I drive are really interesting.

2. I really like my job because I've always loved food. I'm learning a lot about how to make some really great dishes in the kitchen. And we get great food for free. That's the best thing. It can get really stressful at times. But the atmosphere is nice there, and I'm working with a great group of people.
3. It's kind of a fun job if you enjoy selling things. We have a great range of stuff in the store, and I love seeing all the latest designs when they come in. However, I wish I had a different boss. This guy is always bothering me to try to get people to buy things. I prefer to let customers take their time. No one wants to feel pressured, you know?
4. I've always enjoyed working in a place like this. It's really popular with kids. They love to come and look at what we have. They always want to pick them up and play with them, so it's kind of fun. Especially, the baby ones. I love playing with them, too. The only thing I don't like is that it takes me about two hours to get here. I really should move and live closer to my work.

LESSON 16

Conversation, Part A

Manager: Hello. Java Coffee.

Evan: Hello. Can I speak to the manager, please?

Manager: This is the manager.

Evan: Oh, good afternoon. My name is Evan Kincaid. I'm calling about the server position you advertised. Is it still available?

Manager: It is. We haven't filled it yet.

Evan: Great! Can I ask—what are the hours?

Manager: You'd work on weekends only. It's a part-time job.

- Evan: That's perfect. And what would my responsibilities be?
- Manager: Mostly serving coffee and some light cleaning.
- Evan: OK. Do you require any previous experience?
- Manager: Not at all. We provide all the training you need. Do you want to come in for an interview?
- Evan: Yes! I can come in today!

Conversation, Part C

- Manager: Hello. Java Coffee. This is Susana.
- Evan: Hello. Can I speak to the manager, please?
- Manager: This is the manager.
- Evan: Oh, good afternoon. My name is Evan Kincaid. I'm calling about the server position you advertised. Is it still available?
- Manager: It is. We haven't filled it yet.
- Evan: Great! Can I ask—what are the hours? Also, which days is it?
- Manager: You'd work on weekends only. It's a part-time job.
- Evan: That's perfect. And what would my responsibilities be?
- Manager: Mostly serving coffee and some light cleaning.
- Evan: OK. Do you require any previous experience?

- Tom: Hi, guys. I heard you might be going to Australia, Casey!
- Casey: Yep. I'm looking for a part-time job to save up. Maria is helping me.
- Maria: This company is looking for a translator.
- Casey: I don't speak any other languages.
- Tom: I wouldn't recommend the job then. This coffee shop is looking for a server. Why not here?

- Casey: I would have to deal with angry people. I also would have to work late at night. Then I couldn't enjoy my stay here.
- Maria: And tips aren't steady.
- Casey: Yes. That is true too.
- Maria: What about this? A fashion company is looking for a part-time assistant.
- Tom: And they need someone to start right away!
- Casey: That sounds perfect!
- Maria: You should call them.
- Casey: OK.
- Employee: Fashion INC.
- Casey: Hi! Could I speak to the manager?
- Employee: This is the manager.
- Casey: My name is Casey. I was wondering if the part-time assistant position was still available.
- Employee: Yes. We haven't filled it yet.
- Casey: What sort of position is it?
- Employee: You would be helping around the office.
- Casey: What are the hours?
- Employee: Four times a week from 9am to 2pm.
- Casey: That's perfect.
- Employee: Why don't you come in for an interview?
- Casey: Great!
- [later that day...]
- Casey: Hello. I'm here for the interview for the part-time assistant position. Can I speak to the manager?
- Employee: Yes. You can.
- Casey: Great!
- Employee: What's your name?
- Casey: My name is Casey!
- Employee: Oh, Casey. Yes.
- Casey: It's great to meet you. I just want to tell you, I can write pretty well. I have a fashion blog. I'm also really good with people. And as you can see, I'm good at fashion.
- Employee: Sounds good.
- Casey: I'm also reliable and a hard worker. I can do a really good job.
- Employee: Sounds like you'd be a great assistant.
- Casey: Really? When can I start?

Employee: Oh, I don't know. You have to interview first.
 Casey: This isn't the interview?
 Employee: No, let me call the manager... Hi, Ben? This is Mike from downstairs. Casey is here to see you...

LESSON 17

Conversation, Part A

A: So, how do you like it here so far, Steve?
 B: It's great, Ann. I'm learning a lot.
 A: Are you working tomorrow?
 B: No, that's my day off.
 A: Lucky you. What do you do in your free time?
 B: I like to play sports.
 A: Oh, yeah? That's interesting. What do you play?
 B: Soccer, basketball, baseball, hockey, tennis...

Listening, Part A and B

- A: So, what do you like to do in your free time, Paul?
 B: Well, actually I love to cook.
 A: Cooking? Really?
 B: Yeah. I like it a lot.
 A: So, what kinds of things do you like to cook?
 B: It depends. Usually, I just look for interesting recipes on the Internet, and I try them out.
 A: Do you ever cook for your friends?
 B: No, I just cook for myself.
 A: Oh.
- A: Do you have any hobbies, Anna?
 B: Hobbies? Well not exactly, but I like music. I play the guitar. I often play down at the mall on weekends.
 A: Really?
 B: Yeah, I usually set up outside in front of the entrance. I put a hat down in front of me. People often leave me a dollar or two if they like my music.
 A: Cool. So, do you make much?
 B: Well, on a good day I can make around $50.

- A: How do you spend your free time, Tim?
 B: Oh, I'm really into photography. I love it.
 A: Oh, yeah? What sort of things do you photograph?
 B: Mainly wildlife. I like to take photos of birds and animals, you know, nature pictures.
 A: That's interesting.
 B: I'm going to have a show at the public library next month.
 A: That's great! Make sure you let me know when. I'd love to see it.

LESSON 18

Conversation, Part A

Jeff: Hey Kirk, do you have plans for Friday night?
 Kirk: Friday night? I don't think so. Why?
 Jeff: Do you want to see a movie?
 Kirk: Sure, I'd love to. What's playing?
 Jeff: Free Fall is playing at the theater.
 Kirk: Great! I love action movies. When do you want to meet?
 Jeff: How about at 7 p.m., in front of the theater?
 Kirk: OK. And let's get some pizza after the movie.
 Jeff: Sounds good. See you then!

Conversation, Part C

Jeff: Hey Kirk, do you have plans for Friday night?
 Kirk: Friday night? I don't think so. Why?
 Jeff: Do you want to see a movie?
 Kirk: Sure, I'd love to. What's playing?
 Jeff: Free Fall is playing at the theater. I heard it's good.
 Kirk: Great! I love action movies. When do you want to meet?
 Jeff: How about at 7 p.m., in front of the theater?
 Kirk: OK. And let's get some pizza after the movie. I know a great place.
 Jeff: Sounds good. See you then!

LESSON 19Conversation, Part A

Beth: Hello?
 Chen: Beth? Hi, it's Chen.
 Beth: Hi! How's everything?
 Chen: Great. Listen, would you like to go to the museum later?
 Beth: I'm sorry, but I can't.
 Chen: Really? Why not?
 Beth: I have to go to work. Do you want to go tomorrow? I'm off then.
 Chen: I'd love to, but I can't. I'm going to the mall with my brother.
 Beth: Oh, I see...what about the weekend?
 Chen: I can go Saturday.
 Beth: Me too!
 Chen: Sounds good. Let's grab a bite before we go.
 Beth: OK! Sounds perfect.
 Chen: See you soon!

Listening, Part A and B

- A: Hey, Meg. What are you doing?
 B: Oh, I just came from the mall. Look what I got.
 A: Nice! Have you played it yet?
 B: No, of course not. I just bought it. Have you played it before?
 A: No, but it looks fun.
 B: Say, do you want to come over and try it out?
 A: Now?
 B: Sure.
 A: I'd love to, but I can't. I have to go to work soon.
 B: Too bad.
 A: Let me know how you like it.
- A: How was your class?
 B: Good. How was yours?
 A: Interesting.
 B: What are you doing now?
 A: I'm going to Mickey's. I'm kind of hungry.
 B: I've heard of that place. Is it any good?
 A: Yeah. Everything is cheap, and it's fast. I have another class later, so I just want a quick bite. Say, do you want to join me?

B: Sure.

A: But we should go now. They get pretty crowded at lunchtime.

3. A: Are you doing anything later?

B: Not really.

A: Do you want to see Finders Keepers?

B: I'd love to! Where's it playing? At the theater?

A: Actually, it's not playing anywhere. But I have it on DVD.

B: Oh, it's out already?

A: Yeah. Do you want to come over and watch it?

B: Yeah, sure!

4. A: Hello.

B: Jess? It's me, Parker.

A: Hey, Parker.

B: Listen, I'm going to Southland to do some shopping. Do you wanna go?

A: Southland? On a Saturday afternoon?

B: Why not? All the stores are having sales today.

A: No, I don't think so. But thanks for asking. I need to clean my room anyway.

B: Are you sure? It'll be fun.

A: You can have fun for both of us.

LESSON 20Conversation, Part A

Michelle: Hey, Lisa. Are you there yet?

Lisa: Yes. Where are you?

Michelle: I'm really sorry. I'm still on the bus. I ran an errand.

Lisa: OK. Sam isn't here yet either. How long will you be?

Michelle: Not sure. Maybe 10 minutes.

Lisa: OK. Hurry! Or we'll miss the movie.

Michelle: I'll be there soon!

Conversation, Part C

Michelle: Hey, Lisa. Are you there yet?

Lisa: Yes. Where are you?

Michelle: I'm really sorry. I'm still on the bus. I ran an errand. I had to go to the bank.

Lisa: OK. Sam isn't here yet either. How long will you be? Will you be long?
 Michelle: Not sure. Maybe 10 minutes.
 Lisa: OK. Hurry! Or we'll miss the movie.
 Michelle: I'll be there soon!

Eric: Oh, good! You're here.
 Casey: Hi. I don't know where Jill is. She said she was coming.
 Eric: I'm sure she'll be here shortly.
 Casey: So, what do you like to do in your free time, Eric?
 Eric: I like to study... and exercise!
 Casey: Right. I remember... you play tennis, bowl, and box.
 Eric: I am thinking of maybe starting baseball too!
 Casey: Outside?
 Eric: Of course.
 Casey: I mean in the park, with a team.
 Eric: No. But with video games, You can play anywhere. Even the park! It's almost the same thing.
 Casey: I don't think it is.
 Eric: Hi Maria! Have you seen Jill?
 Maria: Yep! She said she was on her way down.
 Eric: Hey, we're going to a movie. Do you want to join us?
 Maria: I'd love to, but I can't. I have plans tonight.
 Eric: Too bad. Maybe next time?
 Maria: Next time. Bye.
 Casey/Eric: Bye! See ya.
 Eric: We're going to be late.
 Casey: We have some time. We should be OK.
 Jill: Sorry guys! I'm so sorry. I know, I'm late. I know. I, um, had to walk the dog.
 Casey/Eric: You don't have a dog.
 Jill: Right. I, um...the traffic is just awful.
 Eric: What? You live right upstairs.
 Jill: I know! So we should really get going or we'll be late!

LESSON 21

Conversation, Part A

Mark: So, where did you go for vacation?
 Reiko: I went to Hong Kong.
 Mark: Wow! Who did you go with? Did you go alone?
 Reiko: No, I traveled with my sister.
 Mark: How fun! And what did you do there? Did you go to Victoria Peak?
 Reiko: Yeah, we also took a city tour. I took a lot of photos.
 Mark: I can't wait to see them. Did you go to Hong Kong Disneyland?
 Reiko: We did. It's small, but it's nice. Oh, and I went shopping.
 Mark: Of course. And what did you buy me?

Conversation, Part C

Mark: So, where did you go for vacation?
 Reiko: I went to Hong Kong. It was a lot of fun.
 Mark: Wow! Who did you go with? Did you go alone?
 Reiko: No, I traveled with my sister. It was her second time there.
 Mark: How fun! And what did you do there? Did you go to Victoria Peak?
 Reiko: Yeah, we also took a city tour. I took a lot of photos.
 Mark: I can't wait to see them. Did you go to Hong Kong Disneyland?

LESSON 22

Conversation, Part A

Annie: So Jill, I have my plane ticket to Munich. I just need to decide what to do there.
 Jill: Maybe I can help, Annie. Do you prefer traveling alone or in a group?
 Annie: I prefer traveling in a group. I usually have more fun with other people.
 Jill: And which would you prefer—staying in hostels or staying in hotels?
 Annie: I'd prefer staying in hostels. It's easier to meet people in hostels.
 Jill: That's true. And would you rather travel by bus or train?

Annie: I'd rather travel by train.

Jill: OK. Then how about this six-day train tour of Bavaria? Each night you have a choice of a hotel or a hostel.

Listening, Part A and B

A: So, we need to decide on our trip. We've talked about a lot of options.

B: I agree. It's decision time.

A: OK. We've decided not to do a camping trip. And we're not interested in a spa resort vacation or a cruise. So, it's a choice between a backpacking trip and an eco-tour.

B: I'd prefer go on a backpacking trip.

A: Oh, good. Me too. I'd rather be flexible. You know—we can then do what we want.

B: I agree. We need to be flexible. An eco-tour would be interesting, but maybe another time.

A: So, that's good. Now how would you prefer traveling? We can go by bus or by train. The bus is cheaper and goes to more places. What do you think?

B: I'd prefer traveling by train, if that's OK.

A: I feel the same way. Trains are more interesting, I think.

B: We should look into a train pass.

A: Good idea. But let's decide where we will stay.

B: Which would you prefer—staying in hotels or hostels?

A: Definitely hostels. I want to save money.

B: So do I. Then we can spend it on other things.

A: Exactly. And what about meals?

B: There will be a lot of restaurants to choose from. But you know, I'd like to eat street food.

A: Do you think it's safe?

B: Sure. We'll just need to choose carefully.

A: Why do you prefer street food? To save money?

B: No, I just prefer trying local foods.

A: Me too.

B: So, we decided the big things. I think we'll make great travel partners.

A: I think so, too. We're both looking for the same type of trip. But there's one thing we haven't decided yet.

B: What's that?

A: Where are we going?

LESSON 23

Conversation, Part A

Teresa: Did you pack everything you need?

Miguel: Uh-huh. I just need to buy a travel pillow at the airport.

Teresa: So, this is your first overseas trip and your first flight! Are you nervous?

Miguel: Not at all.

Teresa: Remember, you're not allowed to take liquids on the plane.

Miguel: Really? OK. I hope I didn't forget anything.

Teresa: You must take your passport!

Miguel: Oh, of course. I guess I am a little nervous!

Conversation, Part C

LESSON 24

Conversation, Part A

Tourist: Hello. How much is a one-way ticket to New York City?

Agent: It's $86.50.

Tourist: And when is the next train?

Agent: It leaves at 7:15 p.m. That's the last train of the day.

Tourist: OK. How long does it take to get there?

Agent: About three hours. It arrives at 10:20 p.m.

Tourist: And where does it depart from?

Agent: Platform four. Would you like a ticket? The train is leaving soon.

Listening, Part A and B

1. A: Next please.
B: Hi. How much is a one-way ticket to Paris?
For the next train?
A: A single—or one-way ticket—is 58 pounds. It leaves at 4:10 p.m.
B: OK. I'll take it. How long is the trip?
A: Three hours.
B: And do I leave from this station?
A: Oh, no. You depart from Waterloo Station.
B: Do I have enough time to get there?
A: Oh, yes. It's only four stops away. Here's your ticket.
B: Thank you.
2. A: Here you go.
B: Thank you. Any bags?
A: No, I'm just carrying this.
B: Just a moment...oh, no. I see the flight is going to leave late.
A: How late?
B: Only one hour. You will leave from Gate 16.
A: I have to transfer in Mexico City.
B: Yes, you will still make your connection.
A: Oh, good. Well, thank you very much.
B: Excuse me. Don't forget your boarding pass.
3. A: Can I help you?
B: Yes. One ticket to Ottawa, please. One-way.
A: OK. Are you leaving today?
B: No. It's for August 30th. I'd like to leave after 6:00 p.m.
A: Because it's more than 21 days away, you can get a discount. The fare is $47. Canadian dollars, of course.
B: Great.
A: The bus leaves Toronto at 6:30 p.m. and arrives at 11:55 the same evening.
B: That's fine. Do you know the platform?
A: Um...no. That's a month away. I suggest you check the board that day.
B: Of course. Thanks very much.

LESSONS 21–24 ENGLISH IN ACTION

Tom: Good day, mate!
Casey: Tom? Why are you dressed like that?

Tom: I'm crocodile Tom and this is Tommy. We're taking a trip to Tom's travels in Australia. I brought photos for you!
Casey: I didn't know you went to Australia!
Tom: I was there last year.
Casey: How long were you there? Did you travel alone?
Tom: I was there about two weeks. My cousin lives there. I have friends in Sydney, so they showed me around.
Casey: What places did you visit?
Tom: I started in Melbourne. That's where my cousin lives. We went to an amazing old market there—Queens Victoria Market. They had all sorts of stuff!
Casey: Oh, wow! That looks great. How was the weather there? Was it cold?
Tom: Yeah, it was a little cool there, so you need to take a jacket. Then I went to Sydney. Look here. You have to take a boat trip to the harbor.
Casey: That looks nice.
Tom: After that I went to the Gold Coast. That's north of Sydney. There are beautiful beaches there.
Casey: Wow. It almost looks like real gold. Did you get around by bus?
Tom: No. Actually, I prefer traveling by plane. Australia is a huge country so bus trips take too long. By bus, it takes about...eight hours to get from Sydney to Melbourne.
Casey: Oh yeah. That's long. So what else did you do?
Tom: I went up the coast and went scuba diving in the Great Barrier Reef. You must go there!
Casey: Absolutely!
Tom: Oh, and this was the best part of the trip. I went to the most amazing park—Kakadu National Park.
Casey: That's gorgeous.
Tom: You can camp there, go hiking, and even make new friends! Casey? Can you do me a favor while you're in Australia?
Casey: Yeah. Sure. What is it?
Tom: Well, I made a cool friend at Kakadu National Park. Will you say hi?

Casey: Sure. How will I find your friend? Do you have an e-mail address?

Tom: No, but he lives at the park. Take this.

Casey: Tom!

Tom: What?

Casey: That's a crocodile!

Tom: His name's Tommy. I named this after him. Please say hi!

LESSON 25

Conversation, Part A

Susan: The music is great, and I love your clothes. Are they traditional?

Calum: Oh, yes. You probably know this—it's called a kilt.

Susan: Yeah. I've seen them in pictures. Is it a kind of skirt?

Calum: Well, Scottish men don't really call it a skirt. People usually wear it on special occasions.

Susan: I see. I love the pattern.

Calum: The pattern is plaid. Scotland is famous for them. The pattern can tell you what family someone is from.

Susan: How interesting! Is there a traditional outfit for women as well?

Calum: Yes. Women normally wear longer skirts. But when they dance, they may wear kilts. I think there will be a women's dance performance later.

Conversation, Part C

Susan: The music is great, and I love your clothes. Are they traditional?

Calum: Yes. Women normally wear longer skirts. But when they dance, they may wear kilts. I think there will be a women's dance performance later.

LESSON 26

Conversation

Tom: Ana, I really want a new jacket. What do you think? Is it me?

Ana: Not really, Tom. I would get something more practical. And the quality is poor.

Tom: Yeah, you're right. Do you think this design is nice?

Ana: Um... a different design might be better.

Tom: How about this one?

Ana: Honestly, you might want to try a different color. That one doesn't really suit you.

Tom: Really?

Ana: This one will look better on you.

Tom: I have that exact jacket at home. You're picky, but you have good taste!

Listening, Part A and B

1. A: I just can't find anything I like today.

B: Let's keep looking. I'm sure we can find something.

A: Hey, look at these. These are nice. Oh, and look—a brand name. You know how I like brand name clothes.

B: Do I ever! Are they long enough?

A: Yeah. So, what do you think?

B: Well, the quality looks good, but I would get a different color.

A: Really?

B: Yeah, I'm not sure it's your best color. It will be hard to match shoes to that color.

2. A: Hey, come over here.

B: Yeah?

A: Look at this. Isn't it cool?

B: Yeah. The dark color looks great on you. Does it fit?

A: Perfectly. It's warm, too.

B: I love the design.

A: I do, too. And it's so soft. Feel it.

B: How much is it?
A: It's um...oh, my.
B: Wow! That's a lot of money.
A: I know. I could charge it.
B: You know, a cheaper one might be better.
Let's keep looking.

3. A: I really want something to go with my new pants. Please help.

B: OK, just relax.

A: What about this?

B: It's nice. I like the design a lot. And the colors, too. But...

A: But what?

B: It looks cheap. The material looks cheap.

A: You think so?

B: Yeah. I think that's why it's not so expensive. You might want to look at brand names.

A: Brand names? But they're too expensive.

B: Not always. Let's see if there's anything on sale.

4. A: Come over here. There are some great deals.

B: Hm...do you see anything you like?

A: How about these? They're 40% off. What a bargain.

B: But do you like them?

A: Well, I like the price.

B: Maybe, you could find a different design.

A: Yeah, you're right. A different design would be better.

B: They're a good value for the money, but will you wear them?

A: Maybe not. They would probably just sit on the floor of my closet. Hey! Look here. These are 50% off!

Conversation, Part A

Jake: Hello.

Ben: Hi, Jake. It's me, Ben. Are you still at the home decor store?

Jake: Yeah, I just found the lamp we looked at online. It will look great in our new apartment.

Ben: Oh, good. Listen, can you do me a favor?

Jake: Sure.

Ben: Would you get some pillows for the sofa?

Jake: No problem. Do you want any particular color?

Ben: How about green?

Jake: Sure. Anything else?

Ben: Would you mind picking up a mirror, too?

Jake: Not at all. Do we need anything else?

Ben: Actually...can you pick up some food? Our fridge is empty.

Conversation

Dave: Hi, Helena. Are you busy?

Helena: Not really. What you are doing?

Dave: I'm playing with my new tablet. I just got it.

Helena: I need to get one of those. They're so cool looking. What do you use it for?

Dave: Lots of things. I mostly use it to store photos and watch movies. It's so much better than my phone.

Helena: What is its most interesting feature?

Dave: The most useful feature is probably the editing software. I can use it for recording, editing, and sharing my own music.

Helena: How fun!

Listening, Part B

1. This the perfect item for the musician “wannabe” in all of us. Some of us play a musical instrument, but it’s not always practical to carry it around with us. Well, that problem is now solved with the Electric Guitar Bag. This unique bag combines a normal bag with an actual guitar. You can use it to carry a laptop, or use it to relax and relieve stress. If you’re feeling stressed, just rock out and you’ll feel better in no time! Order now for just $49.99.
2. Do you like Asian food, but find you aren’t so good with chopsticks? Do you get embarrassed when you have to ask for a fork in a Chinese or Japanese restaurant? Well, let these five pandas in the Panda Chopsticks Kit help you. They are small, plastic, and slippery, so you get lots of practice trying to pick them up with your chopsticks. Use the chopsticks to place them in different positions. Just remember not to eat the pandas. Each set costs $24.
3. Five plus five equals 20, right? If you said wrong, you are right. With the Wrongulator calculator five plus five might equal 20, 12, or 200—anything, but the correct answer of ten. Whatever you put into the Wrongulator is guaranteed to produce a wrong answer. You can’t use it to get a correct answer, so what would you use this for? Most people just use it to play tricks on people—to have a laugh. They may give it as a gift to someone in their office. The cost? Only $7.
4. Here’s something for the person who has everything—a Clone Doll. Get a perfect likeness of yourself. The company that makes these dolls takes a photo of you in 3D and produces a doll head of you. The process is not difficult thanks to 3D scanners and printers. The doll head is then attached to a variety of doll bodies. Now, what in the world are these used for? The most popular use is for weddings. But it seems some people like to use the dolls to scare others! Each doll costs $1,800.

LESSONS 25–28 ENGLISH IN ACTION

- Jill: That’s all you’re packing?
Casey: Yes. I prefer to pack light.
Jill: OK. What do people usually wear in Australia?
Tom: It depends. Students generally wear T-shirts and jeans, if it’s warm.
Casey: In that case, I think I have all the clothes I’ll need.
Jill: It might get cold there.
Casey: But it will be summer.
Jill: Still. You never know. I have a thick sweater. You can borrow mine.
Casey: OK. Thanks, Jill.
Tom: Do you have boots for hiking?
Casey: I don’t know if I’ll go hiking. But I do have boots!
Casey: What do think? Isn’t the design nice?
Tom: I would get something more practical.
Jill: I have great hiking boots.
Casey: Would you mind if I borrowed them?
Jill: Not at all! Let me get everything.
Casey: I don’t know if I’ll have room.
Eric: Hi guys! What are you doing?
Tom: We’re helping Casey pack.
Eric: Sounds like fun! Do you have a book to read for the plane?
Casey: No...but I have my tablet. I use it to play games, watch movies, read books...Just about everything!
Eric: What if the battery runs out?
Casey: Well...
Eric: See? Then you won’t have anything to do. Don’t worry! I have plenty of books you can borrow.
Casey: OK...
Eric: I’ll go get them.
Tom: OK. And I have some things you will definitely need including—a first-aid kit.
Casey: Right...
Jill: Here Casey!
Casey: Oh! It will be warm there. I don’t know I need all of this.
Jill: Of course you do!
Casey: OK, thanks Jill.
Eric: Hey Casey! You’re going to love these books! And I found something else you might need!

Casey: Huh?

Eric: These books are great! And you'll need the snorkel and flippers when you go in the water.

Casey: Geez. Thanks Eric.

Eric: No problem!

Tom: Hey Casey. Lucky you! I found everything!

Casey: Oh! Oh, boy.

LESSON 29

Conversation, Part A

Angela: Let's pause the movie and get a snack. Isn't the movie exciting, Sonya?

Sonya: Not really. I think it's boring. I feel like the acting isn't very good.

Angela: Really?

Sonya: Yeah, and to me, the story is kind of confusing.

Angela: I like it actually. In my opinion, the story is excellent.

Sonya: If you ask me, the story could be better.

Angela: Then why don't we watch something else? I can finish this movie later.

Sonya: No, no, that's fine. I do want to see how it ends.

Listening, Part A and B

1. Maria: Hey, Jason? Have you read this?

Jason: Let's see...oh, The Case of the Missing Briefcase. Yeah.

Maria: What did you think of it?

Jason: It's one of my favorite books. A real page-turner.

Maria: Are you serious?

Jason: Yeah. I found the story very interesting. I take it you didn't like it?

Maria: Not at all. I thought it was really, really boring.

Jason: Huh. I guess you won't go see the movie next year then.

Maria: No way.

2. Jason: Can you help me?

Maria: With what?

Jason: Today's homework. I'm finding the assignment confusing.

Maria: Really? I've already finished it.

Jason: You have? You weren't confused?

Maria: No. I thought it was difficult but not confusing.

Jason: Well maybe you can explain it to me.

Maria: Of course. So, what part exactly?

3. Jason: Can you hand me the remote control?

Maria: Why? I thought you liked soccer.

Jason: I love soccer, but I don't think this match is very exciting. Nothing is happening.

Maria: But someone will probably score after you change the channel.

Jason: What do you think of this match?

Maria: It's not exciting, but there isn't anything else on. Why don't we watch a little more?

Jason: OK. But I'm getting a snack.

LESSON 30

Conversation, Part A

Zack: Hi Caitlin. It's Zack. Listen, I don't mean to gossip, but did you hear that Joey and Mike got into an argument?

Caitlin: I just heard. Our two best friends...

Zack: I don't really know what happened. To me, they just stopped communicating.

Caitlin: I think so, too. But I feel it's probably more than that. I think Mike sometimes argued with Joey and that bothered him.

Zack: I'm not sure I really agree. I've seen Joey judging Mike.

Caitlin: I just hope they make up or at least stay friends.

Zack: I feel the same way. Let's be sure to be there for them.

Conversation, Part C

Zack: Hi, Caitlin. It's Zack. Listen, I don't mean to gossip, but did you hear that Joey and Mike got into an argument?

Caitlin: I just heard. Our two best friends...I feel so bad for them.

Zack: I don't really know what happened. To me, they just stopped communicating.

Caitlin: I think so, too. But I feel it's probably more than that. I think Mike sometimes argued with Joey and that bothered him.

Zack: I'm not sure I really agree. I've seen Joey judging Mike. That wasn't nice.

Caitlin: I just hope they make up or at least stay friends.

Zack: I feel the same way. Let's be sure to be there for them.

LESSON 31

Conversation, Part A

Kevin: I am so embarrassed.

Amy: Why? What happened?

Kevin: I thought Sandra's birthday was on Sunday night. But it was on Saturday night.

Amy: Oh, no. So, you missed it?

Kevin: What do you think I should do?

Amy: I'd just be honest. And definitely apologize. I'd make sure to get her a birthday present, too!

Kevin: What time does the mall close?

Listening, Part A and B

1. I got home a little late last night. It was actually my birthday, but I was too busy at work to plan anything. My friend borrowed my apartment key yesterday morning. He said he'd left something there a few days ago, and wanted to pick it up. Anyway, when I got home the place was totally dark. When I turned on the light, a whole bunch of my friends were there and they all shouted, "Surprise! Happy birthday!"
2. Some new people moved into the apartment next door to me a few weeks ago. I haven't met them yet, and I never see them anywhere around the apartment building. But late at night I hear some strange noises coming from their apartment. It sounds like they're making something. Sometimes, I hear a sound as if someone is playing a strange musical instrument. What would you do if you were me?
3. I borrowed a book from a friend a few weeks ago. It was a book her mother gave her, and I know she really liked it. Unfortunately, I spilled some coffee on it. I tried to clean it up, but now several pages have awful coffee stains on them. She won't be happy with me at all. What should I do?

4. I ran into an old friend of mine at the train station the other day. The last time I saw her was two years ago. She looked great, and we're going to get together again for coffee this week. The only thing was that when I first ran into her, I couldn't remember her name. Has that ever happened to you? Luckily, I don't think she noticed.

LESSON 32

Conversation, Part A

Walt: I heard something interesting on the news last night before I went to bed.

Tara: Oh, yeah? What's that?

Walt: It was a story about a woman who gave away several million dollars. It was money she inherited from an aunt.

Tara: Wow! What did she do with it?

Walt: She was watching a TV show about needy families. After watching the show, she decided to give all the money away.

Tara: Amazing.

Walt: Next, she set up a scholarship program to pay for the education of hundreds of motivated high school kids. Then she decided to pay for their college tuition, too.

Tara: That's fantastic. She must be really generous!

Conversation, Part C

Walt: I heard something interesting on the news last night before I went to bed.

Tara: Oh, yeah? What's that?

Walt: It was a story about a woman who gave away several million dollars. It was money she inherited from an aunt.

Tara: Wow! What did she do with it?

Walt: She was watching a TV show about needy families. After watching the show, she decided to give all the money away. Can you believe that?

Tara: Amazing.

Walt: Next, she set up a scholarship program to pay for the education of hundreds of motivated high school kids. Then she decided to pay for their college tuition, too. What a generous person!

Tara: That's fantastic. She must be really generous.

LESSONS 29-32 ENGLISH IN ACTION

Casey: Hello? Hello? Can you hear me?

Jill/Maria/: Hi Casey!!

Tom

Casey: Hi everyone!

Jill: How do you like Sydney?

Casey: I love it! I think it's an amazing city. Everyone is really nice and the city is just beautiful.

Tom: Did you go to Kakadu National Park yet?

Casey: Not yet. I just got here.

Maria: How's the weather?

Casey: It's warm during the day and colder at night. But I have lots of sweaters, thanks to Jill.

Jill: Yay!

Casey: I have to tell you guys something that happened.

Maria: What happened?

Eric: Tell us!

Tom: What?

Jill: Sure!

Casey: Before I got to my hotel, I was really excited. But when I got to my hotel, I felt awful! It was nothing like the pictures.

Jill: Oh no!

Casey: I complained, but they wouldn't give me my money back.

Maria: That's terrible.

Casey: After that I left to find another hotel. I was walking around when I noticed something.

Tom: What? What?

Casey: I found a wallet. There was a lot of money in it, but no ID.

Eric: How much was it?

Casey: Around 3,000 U.S. dollars. What would you do if you found all that money?

Tom: Wow.

Jill: That's a lot of money.

Maria: If I were you, I'd give it to the police.

Tom: I'm not sure I agree. You could stay at a nicer hotel!

Jill: I don't know what I would do.

Eric: I would be honest and give it to the police.

Maria: I feel exactly the same way.

Casey: OK. So, guess what I did?

Jill: You kept it!

Tom: You spent it!

Casey: Nope. I did what Eric and Maria would do and gave it to the police. And guess that?

Jill/Tom/: What?
Eric/Maria

Casey: As soon as I turned it in, the man who lost the wallet contacted me! It turns out that he owns one of the best hotels in Sydney!

Tom: No way!

Casey: Yes way! So I get to stay for free!

Eric: That's awesome!

Tom: Wow!

Maria: See, it pays to be honest.

Casey: I have to go, I have a tour, but I'll see you guys again soon!

Eric/Tom: Bye Casey!

Maria: Travel safe!

Jill: Be careful!

Tom: Can I see Tommy?

Casey: Bye guys!

Eric/Tom/: Bye!
Maria/Jill
