

Work in groups of three or four.

- 1 All of my teachers are male.
- 2 Never before have I met someone so impressive.
- 3 Isn't it be a good idea to talk to someone about your problems?
- 4 There are few friends I really trust.
- 5 No sooner did she eat the sandwich than she started to feel sick.
- 6 It's one of a strangest films I've ever seen.
- 7 Try not to lecture me about my homework, please!
- 8 They regret not to listen to his advice.
- 9 A lot of the people in my family are good at sport.
- 10 Not only should you stop complaining, you should also start trying to be more positive.
- 11 Didn't spend she the weekend at your house?
- 12 Only when you stop shouting will I listen to what you're trying to say.
- 13 None the people at the party liked the music.
- 14 They live in France, but his parents are from the United Kingdom.
- 15 I bought a new bag yesterday – a bag is red with blue stripes.
- 16 Under no circumstances should you leave the class during lessons.
- 17 At no time I have ever insulted my parents.
- 18 She loves healthy food, but she hates pizza!
- 19 I have invited each of my friends.
- 20 She works with poor.

5 Grammar Review

Aims: To review and practise grammar from the unit. This can be completed when students have finished the unit.

Time: 15–20 minutes

Materials: 1 handout for each group of three or four students

- Divide students into groups of three or four. Tell them you are going to give them a handout with 20 sentences; some of the sentences are correct, but others contain grammatical mistakes. Each group has £1,000 to spend and the aim is to identify sentences with grammatical errors and then 'buy' the sentences they think are correct. Give each group a handout. Students read the sentences and decide if each one is correct or not.
- Start the auction when students are ready. If a group wants to bid on a sentence, one student should raise his/her hand. Bids start at £50 and increase by £50 each time. Each sentence is sold to the highest bidding group.
- The winner is the group which has bought the most correct sentences at the end or, if two groups have the same number of correct sentences, the winner is the group with the most money left.
