What do I know about my life?
A lot more with my new fitness tracker.

Now I know I take 7,000 steps a day – not bad, but not great. But I also know that I look at my laptop for 10.5 hours every day! About 78% of that time (8.2 hours) is for work. When I have free time, I chat with friends (64 messages a day) or make plans for later.

I only sleep six hours a night (25%). Then I have something to drink (coffee or soda) about eight times a day to stay awake. Thank you, caffeine!!

The good news? I exercise a lot because I do a lot of housework (my roommate doesn't do anything). I do the laundry, the cooking, and the dishes, and I make the bed. That's about the same as walking 7.5 kilometers a day!

The podcast is very interesting, but why are all these examples of businesspeople in America? There are other successful people – people from other countries, artists and creative people, more women. I would like to know about Viviane Senna, for example. What does she do every day on a normal day? We never read about her personal life.

- B Read the introduction to a podcast. Where is Jon? What is he doing?

BICYCLE TRAVELER

New York, Paris, Rio — just three of the many big cities with a popular bike-sharing program. It's clear why these programs are popular: bike riding is a healthy, cheap, and fast way to travel in the city. But what is it like for a visitor? Our reporter Jon Davies spends a day in Mexico City and tries out the EcoBici program.

- C 1.32 PREDICT Before his bike ride, does Jon think it's a good idea? Do you think he feels the same after his ride? Listen and check.

- E PAIR WORK THINK CRITICALLY What are some positive and negative things about bike-sharing programs? Discuss with a partner. Do you think these programs are a good idea for every city? Why or why not?

- A PAIR WORK Look at the pictures. Which picture is Chicago? Which is Bristol? Which is Melbourne?
- B READ FOR MAIN IDEAS Read the posts. What kind of website is this? Who is positive, and who is negative about their first day?

A stranger in a strange town

Rafael: I went to Chicago about ten years ago for a work project. I remember the moment I stepped off the bus from the airport. Everything was strange – the smells, the crowds, the language – and everyone was in a hurry. The weather was also very cold. I needed warm clothes, and fast! In Mexico, we don't have winters like that!

Julia: I'm from Cologne in Germany. At age 20 I went to the U.K. as an exchange student. I remember my first day at the university in Bristol. It was scary, but then I looked around and saw so many other people in my situation. I thought, "They must feel the same." That helped. And it was a beautiful September day. Suddenly, I felt so positive.

Kamal: I was born in Nepal, but I went to live in Melbourne, Australia, as an immigrant worker. On that first day, I didn't understand any English, but I remember that people were friendly. I smiled, and they smiled back. I walked along the river and felt very free. Everything was clean and new, like a fresh start.

✉ Send your first impressions to 1stday@ourplanet.com

2 LANGUAGE IN CONTEXT

- A PAIR WORK Think of a time you bought something you didn't need. Why did you buy it?
 B Read the blog post. Find three things that stores do to make us buy more things.

Never go to the grocery store when you're hungry!

I go grocery shopping most weekends, but I don't like it. I go early, and I don't waste time. But today I went after work to get some eggs for dinner. Big mistake!

When I walked in, I turned right, as most people do. Stores always put their sale items to the right. I put some cheese and some meat in my cart because they were on sale. Then I saw the desserts. All of them were on the middle shelf. Did you know that stores put expensive things on the middle shelf because that's where customers look first? I put two desserts into my cart. Then I smelled the bread. Stores know that fresh bread makes people hungry. Yep, I bought bread, too. I now had many items in my cart! On the way to the checkout, I counted 12 things but no eggs. EGGS! I almost forgot. I went to the egg shelf, but there were none left!

- C PAIR WORK What are your shopping habits? Tell your partner.

3 GRAMMAR: Determiners

  - 2 We use a determiner + of + the + plural noun/object pronoun (you, us, them) when we want to talk about specific things / things in general.

Determiners

I go grocery shopping most weekends.
I went after work to get some eggs for dinner.
All of them were on the middle shelf.

I now had many items in my cart.
I counted 12 things, but no eggs.
There were none left.

- B Look at the bold words in the box above. Write them in the correct order below.

- C Now go to page 135. Look at the grammar chart and do the grammar exercise for 6.2.

- D PAIR WORK Write sentences about the stores in your town. Use all, most, many, some, none, or no. Tell your partner. Do you both agree?

A I'm looking for something for my phone.

B A phone charger?

A No. You use it to connect your phone to electricity.

4 SPEAKING

PAIR WORK Student A: Go to page 158.

1 LISTENING

- A PAIR WORK Think of someone you know who gives good money advice. What advice does he/she give you? Tell a partner.
- B PREDICT You're going to listen to three stories about problems with money. Look at the pictures. Where do the three stories happen?

- C 1.66 Listen to the stories. Match the stories (1–3) to the pictures (A–C). Were your answers in exercise 1B correct?
- D 1.66 LISTEN FOR DETAIL Listen to the podcast again. Check (✓) the sentences that are true. Correct the false ones.
- |  |  |
|--|--|
| <input type="checkbox"/> 1 The women spent many hours drinking tea.              | <input type="checkbox"/> 4 The money was still in her bag when she got it back.              |
| <input type="checkbox"/> 2 The women borrowed some money from a man in the café. | <input type="checkbox"/> 5 Senator Richard Burr didn't want people to see him enter his PIN. |
| <input type="checkbox"/> 3 Rosa had $60 in her bag when she was in the taxi.    | <input type="checkbox"/> 6 The Senator left his cash in the ATM.                             |

- E THINK CRITICALLY PAIR WORK Look at the three money lessons the speakers learned. Which lesson do you agree most with? Explain your answer.

- Some things are more important than money.
- Pay attention when you're at the ATM.
- When you travel, check that the banks are open.

2 PRONUNCIATION: Listening for weak words

- A 1.67 Listen to the sentences from the stories. Circle the words that aren't stressed.
It was the long New Year's weekend a couple of years ago.
None of their ATM cards worked in Japan.
- B 1.68 PAIR WORK Listen and write in the missing words. Compare with a partner.
- 1 What did you _____ the movie last night?
- 2 I'm all _____ cash.
- C Complete the sentence.
A weak form of the word _____ is often used when it's between other words.

3 WRITING

A Read the advice website on how to save money. How many of the suggestions do you agree with?

Top tips to save money
– spending less on the little things in life.

- 1 One in, one out. When you buy a new shirt, sell or give away an old one.
- 2 Going to the movies? Don't buy snacks at the theater. Go to a store to buy them before you go.
- 3 A "2-for-1" deal isn't always a good deal. When a store offers two big bags of chips for $5.00, and a single bag is $3.00, you save $1.00, and that's great! Or is it? If you didn't need all those chips, then you paid $2.00 for something that you didn't really want.
- 4 Better to borrow than buy. If you only need to wear something once – for example, a suit for a job interview – ask a friend to lend you one.
- 5 Don't join a gym! If you're going to exercise just once a week, don't waste money on an annual subscription. It's usually cheaper to pay for each fitness class.
- 6 Go grocery shopping in the evening. That's when supermarkets have sales on many items, and you can fill your cart with more for less!

GLOSSARY
give away (v) give something to someone and not ask for money snack (n) a small amount of food between meals
subscription (n) money that you pay regularly for a service

B With a partner, decide if the suggestions in exercise 3A are about clothes (C), free time (FT), or shopping (S). Then add two more suggestions for each one.

C WRITING SKILLS Look at the words in bold in the website. Underline the word in each sentence that one and them refer to. Find the other example of one in the website and underline the word it refers to.

D Rewrite the sentences with the words in parentheses ( ).

- 1 If you want a new sweater, you can probably find a new sweater in the sale section for less than full price. (one)
- 2 If you have some pants or a shirt that you didn't wear last year, you're probably not going to wear the pants or shirt this year, either. (them)

WRITE IT

E Imagine you have a vlog. In today's vlog, you are going to make suggestions for saving money on the two topics below. Write your script. Don't forget to use one and them when you can.

A TASTE OF HOME

Everyone has their own idea of comfort food – that special dish you eat anytime you feel sad or worried.

For me, there's only one comfort food: my mom's chicken soup. Did you know that chicken soup is probably the world's favorite comfort food? It makes you feel happy, and it's quick to make – perfect when there's not much time to cook.

The classic recipe includes chicken and a little onion, but there are many other ways to cook it. Colombian ajjaco has a lot of corn and potatoes, in India it comes with an egg, and the Chinese serve it with noodles and sometimes a few chilies. In Korea they usually eat samgyetang in the summer, served with some rice.

Comfort food is very personal. It can be a full meal, a dessert, or just a snack. Tell us about your favorite comfort food.

- B PAIR WORK Find these words in the blog: dessert, dish, meal, snack. Think of an example of each one.

- B Read the article. Were you right? Read the article again and write the headings in the correct places.
- 1 In a restaurant near you
  - 2 Meat from plants
  - 3 Good for the future
  - 4 The secret ingredient
- C PAIR WORK THINK CRITICALLY Read the article again. Are Impossible Burgers the best thing to happen to food in years? Discuss the positives and negatives of green food with your partner.

The new and wonderful world of Impossible Foods

A

Impossible Foods is a company in Silicon Valley, California. They make burgers and other delicious meat and dairy products. There's something very unusual about their food: Their meat and dairy don't come from animals, but from plants. Yes, plants! I didn't believe it at first, but it's true. Thanks to Impossible Foods, you can eat a delicious burger that looks like meat and tastes like meat but is made with only plants.

B

How does the Impossible Burger look and taste so real? The secret is something called heme. It's an ingredient that exists in both plants and animals. Heme gives raw beef its red color and meat flavor. Impossible Foods uses the heme found in plants, not animals, to make the Impossible Burger. It's healthy, and the plant ingredients don't hurt the environment. Clever, isn't it?

C

So, why is Impossible Foods doing this? Well, animal farming uses about 50% of the Earth's land and 25% of the Earth's water. That's a very expensive way to produce food. So, it seems to me that the Impossible Burger is a great example of a food of the future – good for the planet and good for your health. Soon it'll be cheap to eat, too!

D

Maybe you think all of this is science fiction, but it's not. Twenty restaurants in the U.S. now sell the Impossible Burger. Soon these delicious burgers will be everywhere. In my opinion, it's the best thing to happen to food in years!

GLOSSARY

dairy (adj) milk products, or food made from milk

2 WRITING

- A Look at the comments posted about the article. Who is positive, and who is negative about Impossible Foods?

A screenshot of a comment thread on a website. The comments are as follows:

- James (yellow profile icon): I think it's a great idea. I'm a vegetarian, but I love to eat burgers – and now I can!
- Anna (blue profile icon): I don't like to eat food that isn't natural!
- Yang (yellow profile icon): Why eat a fake steak? If you ask me, it's like having a fake watch.
- Marta (blue profile icon): I love the idea of impossible food, but I don't think it's going to be popular. People prefer the real thing.
- Oliver (yellow profile icon): They say it's green and cheap, but what about the cost of all the experiments? For me, research like this is too expensive.

- B PAIR WORK Look at the comments again. Which comments do you agree and disagree with? Why?

- C WRITING SKILLS Look at the words in bold in the comments. Do we use these expressions to say something is true or to give an opinion?

On today's "Backpack Nation," four listeners offered some advice for when you go to live in another country. What did you think of their ideas? Do you have any advice to give?

Reply

Thank you for the advice. It's a great idea to join a language club. You could also offer to give lessons in your own language. It's a good way to meet people and to make some extra money at the same time!

Great advice, thanks! I think it's also very important to remember to stay in touch with your friends and family back home when you first arrive. If you don't, you can get really lonely. The internet makes it so easy. When I lived away from home, I talked to my family every day. It really helped!

I agree that a comfortable place to live is really important. I think it's a good idea to get a room in an apartment or house with other people. You make friends, you practice the language, and it costs less. It worked for me!

A Look at the pictures. What are they wearing? Now read an email from Mike to a friend. In the pictures, which one is Mike, and which one is his new coworker?

Hi Angelica,

Well, here I am in Berlin! I still can't believe it – I had an interview one month ago, and I started work today! 😊

So far, Europe's OK, very pretty. But the weather is worse than at home – colder, wetter, windier – horrible! 😞 For my first day on the job, I wore my winter suit with a blue tie.

I didn't know it, but the dress code at this company is a lot less formal than at my old company. Sneakers and T-shirts for almost everyone. A lot of the men wear bracelets and earrings! And everything is more modern than at my old office. The work is more or less the same, but the people are much warmer and friendlier than in my old office. Maybe it's the sneakers!

It's definitely a more interesting place to work, and the money is better, too. I'm really lucky. But I'm going to need to buy some casual clothes!

Mike

How to sell ... CARS

Advertisers don't just sell things. They sell ideas. Here are the four most important ways that car companies use images to connect with buyers.

1 _____

A car is speeding along a beautiful open road near the ocean, in the desert, or in the mountains. The air is clean and, most important of all, there are no other cars.

Picture

2 _____

Dad is driving, mom is smiling, and the two kids in the back seat are laughing. The car is full of things for a weekend trip to the beach – toys, towels, snacks – but there's always room for more.

Picture

3 _____

The driver is wearing fashionable clothes, and her best friend is sitting beside her. They're listening to music as she drives. The car is small, easy to drive, easier to park and fun.

4 _____

Is this a car or a spaceship? This car is full of the most modern technology possible – cameras, screens, an entertainment system, GPS. The car almost drives by itself, and it doesn't need gas, just electricity!

Picture

C PAIR WORK THINK CRITICALLY Discuss the ways that the car ads in the article are different from reality. Look at the ideas in the box and add two more.

*Some families are not happy on long car trips.
It's often difficult to find any parking space, big or small.*

I'm an office worker. I spend my working life at my computer. It's not physically difficult, but it's not without danger. Dr. Charles Gerba, a germ expert from the University of Arizona, says there are millions of invisible enemies all around us ...

A Viruses love offices. Air-conditioning systems recycle air and the germs in it. When one person in the office has a cold, their germs are on 40–60% of their coworkers in just four hours. The virus can stay in the office for three days!

B Some keyboards are dirtier than toilet seats – fact! Dr. Gerba did a study of more than 100 offices (law offices, call centers, accountant services, etc.) and found keyboards with 3,295 microbes per square inch. For toilet seats, that number is usually about 49 microbes!

Why? Food falls into your keyboard and produces bacteria. Dr. Gerba calls the keyboard a "bacteria cafeteria." Next lunchtime, ask yourself: "Do I really have to eat at my desk?"

3 GRAMMAR: have to

Reply Forward

To: _____
From: _____
Subject: Hello from the past

Hello you! Or really, hello ME, but five years in the future.

It's July 20 and it's 2:03 p.m. I'm 25 years old. When I read this email again, I'll be 30.

I'm writing this email because I want to read about what I was afraid of when I wrote it. And I hope that when I read it in five years, I'll see that everything is OK, that I'm OK.

So, what am I afraid of? I'm afraid of starting a new life in the city. I'm afraid because I don't know anyone, and I'm worried that I won't make any friends, and that I won't be successful in my new career.

I'm leaving a pretty good life. I live with my family in a great apartment. It's home. When I move to the city this fall, where will I live? Who will my friends be? Will I have any friends? Does it all work out well for me? Also, is my hair long, like I want it to be?

Anyway, I really just want to say that I trust you, ... me, ... us. It's a scary step to take, but it's for the best. You're smart and friendly, you're good at making the best of every situation. Don't be afraid that you made the wrong choice. You have to live your life and take chances! No matter what, it was a good choice.

By the way, you're still looking good. For 30.

Good luck with everything!

Adam (25 years old)
