LEARN THIS! already and yet

a We use already with the present perfect affirmative to say that something has happened (often earlier than expected). We put already between have / has and the past participle.

'Can you text Tom?' 'I've already texted him.'

b We use yet with the present perfect negative to say that something expected hasn't happened, or with the interrogative to ask if something expected has happened. We put yet at the end of the sentence.

It's 11 p.m. but Sally hasn't done her homework yet.

Have you tidied your room yet?
